

Which skin tone color fits you best?

It turns out that white is the worst color for an undershirt because it contrasts starkly with most skin tone colors, which makes it highly visible under light and thin dress shirts.

The -Cut comes in 3 different skin tones to remain quasi invisible even under a thin white dress shirt.

To select the best suited color for your beautiful skin tone, you can print this page to test our light, tan, and dark skin tone colors.
